DEDICATION

MR. PARKS R. BANKS

To Mr. Banks, the Senior Class dedicates this Tiger of 1950. His understanding guidance during our association with him and his many years of valuable service to the school make him more than deserving of our most sincere appreciation. He is an example and a challenge to all of us who wish to become desirable citizens in any community.

A Day in Our Life at Har-Brack

Foreword

For three years this building and the people in it have been the main part of our lives. It is only fitting, therefore, that we should consider this influence in designing this yearbook, the last record of our activities in our school.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. WALTER S. BAZARD
Principal

MR. PARKS R. BANKS
Assistant Principal

Mrs. Mason, Mr. Banks, Mr. Bazard, Miss Olczak

The efficiency in the management of our school is due mainly to the cooperation among the members of the administrative staff and their secretaries. Though seldom seen by the average student, the above is a typical scene in the solution of some problem or the acceptance or rejection of some new theory in modern educational trends.

Student Activities Board

The Activities Board serves as a clearing house for students' activities. Each class sends its own representative as well as the class president to the meeting and it is this group that makes up the voting power of the board. Three faculty members and the school principal also attend the meetings; each has one vote.

Obertance, Murdock, Nykiel, Korbeck, Mrs. Briggs, Whetsel, Oddis.

Hobby Club

A new club, sponsored by Mrs. Briggs, was formed this year. The members are senior girls who have a hobby which needs the direction of Mrs. Briggs' skilled hands. They have knitted, painted, stencilled and have done many other kinds of interesting projects. From the interest created by this group, it would appear that the club will have an overflow of admission applicants next year.

Tiger Staff

The Tiger Staff is composed of members of the Senior Class for the purpose of editing and publishing this yearbook, the Har-Brack TIGER. The staff consists of a number of committees — business, photography, advertising, art and literary. On the executive board Barry Collins is Editor-in-chief; Mary Oddis and Mary Heffner are the assistant editors; Howard Rhodes, the advertising manager and Janet Nykiel is business manager.

Foremost in the mind of each member of the staff was the successful publication of this 1950 Tiger. In order to meet this goal, money was needed, so, the Tiger staff with the cooperation of the Senior Class began a series of money making projects—the sale of peanut brittle, dances, bake sales and a Slim Bryant show.

Sponsors for this year's yearbook are Mr. Stinebiser and Mr. Tartalone.

The entire staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank anyone who in any small way helped in the publication of this book.

Dramatics

The Class of 1949 presented as its Senior Class Play, "A Change of Heart" by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes. Mrs. Kennedy directed the production which was presented April 7 and 8, 1949.

Senior Class Play, 1950

The Senior Class Play, "Come Over To Our House" presented April 20 and 21, is a 3-act comedy by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes. Mrs. Kennedy directed the production.

The story revolves around the Eldridge household—pretty, widowed Mrs. Eldridge, the mother; lively, ambitious Marion, sixteen; and attractive Lindy, a senior. It also revolves, most importantly, around son Jay—a serious lad with a great talent for classical music—who learns, when he meets the right girl, that he also has a flair for swing, boogie-woogie and musical patter. This lands him in the school vaudeville—and a carload of trouble. This trouble reaches out and also involves his grandmother, his mother's three romances.

Cheerleaders

The most enthusiastic persons at any sports events are our cheerleaders. Under the guidance of Mr. Hartzell, the cheerleaders have added many new cheers to the roster praising the Big Green. Cheerleaders are elected in their sophomore year by the student body and remain as such during their three years at HUB. The graduating cheerleaders are Maureen Conroy and Barry Collins.

Har-Brack Band

The Har-Brack band accompanies our gridiron boys to all the games, giving moral and musical support. At each home game the band parades and drills, led through its many colorful and spectacular routines by Mr. Noce, their director. The highlight of their musical year is the band concert in which Har-Brack participates with other schools' band members.

Athletic Managers

This is the group which proves that all of the sports activities do not take place on the field. During football season, especially, the numerous phone calls, visits and requests that are made of Mr. Mason make him an equal of importance to any coach.

Though the glory given to the team is not given to these student athletic managers, they are none the less deserving of it. They are the boys who are behind the lines.

Twirlers

A great part of the success of any band maneuvers can be given to our twirlers, for they are the girls whose batons can be seen rolling, twirling, raising in the air.

The Squad—1949 Season

During the three years in which the class of 1950 has been part of the student body at Har-Brack, the school has never lacked a successful football squad. In the '47 season we saw our team go to Forbes Field and play in the play-offs against Ken Hi. The next season we cheered as Coach Brown led our team to eight victories, with two losses. In the 1949 season, the squad once again won its share of victories, losing only to New Ken and New Castle, the same two teams to whom we had bowed in our 1948 season. We had seven victories as we were scheduled for only nine games. The toughest loss of the season was our 6-7 defeat to Ken Hi on Armistice Day.

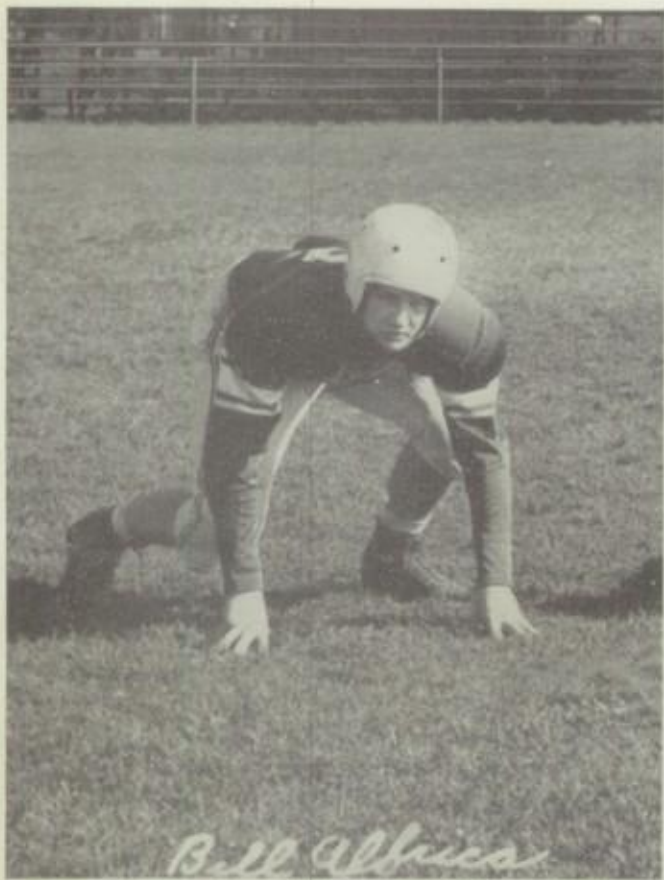

A total of 58 points was scored against the Big Green while the Tigers totaled a score of 195 points against its opponents.

November 11—Football Season Ends—

November 12—Basketball Practices Begin—

Basketball

As in any other activity graduation means the loss of many valuable people. This is also true in basketball. Pictured on this page are 6 seniors who will no longer play basketball at HUB and 1 junior who is ineligible because of age limitations. Some of the boys will go to college and perhaps become stars there, some will accept positions in various offices or factories but all have left us a memory of a season of basketball long to be remembered. Each player pictured here is a 1950 letterman.

Tom Stroud, Buddy Mack, Ed Lendenski, Martin Crytzer, Ed France, Jack Sipes, Bill Lauer.

The Har-Brack Tigers had one of the best seasons this past year on the basketball floor that it has had in the past several years. Coach Ray Hudson led the team through a total of 20 games in which the final scores showed HUB with a total of 15 victories and 5 losses. One of the tough breaks of the season was the 38-33 loss to Ford City. In stating the success of the Varsity team, we shall let its record speak for itself.

Coach Ray Hudson, Varsity
Coach Charles Gugino, Junior Varsity

Under the coaching of Mr. Hudson this team of 11 players gave Har-Brack one of its best seasons in many years. Tom Slack and Don Stewart are student managers and deserve credit for taking charge of equipment and the personal care of the players.

Standing: Slack, Young, Crytzer, Laver, Mattioli, Mrozinski, Stewart.
Kneeling: France, Stroud, Garrett, Mack, Lendenski, Sipes.

Varsity In Action

The action shots on this page show clearly the excellent teamwork, good sportsmanship, and high spirit of our Varsity squad.

Junior Varsity Takes a Stand

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Mr. Gugino, like the Varsity, had a successful '49-'50 season. A total of 20 games yielded 17 victories and 3 losses to this J.V. squad. Many of its outstanding players—Collins, Hicks, Stroud, Rodgers, Jonczak, and Sadowski—are looking forward to the 1950-51 season and positions on the Varsity Squad.

Baseball

Under the direction of Mr. Nary, Har-Brack has gained prominence in scholastic baseball during the past three years. The '49 season was especially successful with the team winning nine league contests, losing one. By defeating Springdale in the last game of the season, Har-Brack won the sectional championship, but was eliminated in the playoffs—West Deer 2, Har-Brack 0. The scoring for the season was:

Tigers	11	Ken Hi	9	Tigers	2	Ken Hi	1
Tigers	4	Plum Twp.	0	Tigers	8	Arnold	1
Tigers	6	Arnold	3	Tigers	8	Tarentum	7
